

Please keep the internet neutral. In doing the opposite will only hurt you and your children in the long run. ISP's will not magically unlock you and your family to the internet your used to if this should pass. You will be blocked, slowed, and filtered just like the rest of us. And for what some money? Think about it.